Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc Mark Twain

This is Twain's recounting of the life of Joan of Arc, a historical figure with whom the author was deeply fascinated. While Twain's take on the martyr has been dismissed by some critics as heavily romanticized, he considered it to be his finest work. The last of his novels to be completed, Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc is an excellent read for anyone hoping to experience Twain at the height of his maturity.
