You! What You MUST Know to Start Your Career as a Professional by renowned consumer and social research guru Howard R. Moskowitz, Ph.D. is a comprehensive, candid, and highly reader-friendly book for anyone entering or considering the field of consumer and social research. From education to a clearly defined overview of the industry, from how to be/act/shine at professional conferences to issues of ethics and morality in business, from the art of collaboration to the gift of awareness, the author blends humor with expertise as he covers the key points pertaining to the formative years in the development of a research professional. How do you get that job? If there's an opportunity, will you recognize it? There are no fuzzy lines or open-ended suggestions here, but a precise, step by step, do-this-and-win! approach that will make efforts pay off and maximize the possibilities of a successful future.
