ROSA:

I just found my perfect man.

I usually go for dark and dangerous types. This soldier's all that and protective, too. He even cares about his family.

And, oh, did I mention how freaking hot he is? He's got crystal eyes set in a gorgeous face, and a rippling body that feels amazing sliding against mine. When I'm in his arms, there's nothing else I need.

But there's the secret that's buried at the heart of our relationship; the one that brought us together. I know there's more to it than what he's told me.

If it unravels, it might just tear us apart.

CALIX:

This girl's everything I've been aching for my whole life: fiery and sweet, outspoken and caring. Best of all, she comes in a curvy little package that's unbelievable lying bare on my sheets.

It's been two weeks, but I feel like I've known her forever

She doesn't know who I am, though. Truth is, I've buried the biggest part of my life away from her. Like the fact that my father is a white nationalist. Like the fact that I was too, till I met her.

If the walls come down, they'll come down hard. I've harmed her enough. I should let her go.

I can't.

Little Dark Secret features sizzling romance, steamy sexual situations, heart pounding suspense and some disturbing language. Mature and open-minded audiences only. This book contains a HEA and is intended to be read after Big White Lie.
