Blood Dream (Book #2 of The Blood Born Tales) T.C. Elofson

After centuries of bitter strife, the vampires of The Origin of Blood have been beaten. Their father, the first vampire to haunt mankind, is dead. And with his end came the cure for vampires everywhere. But it's not long before the survivors—outlaw vampires and renegades of the Blood Born—gather together once more. As the sun rises on a new era of vampire, the oldest evil the world has ever known is waking.

Newly-retired Tim Anderson is called back into action by his old friend and ex-partner, Seattle detective Kenny Johnson. Vampires and humans alike are mysteriously dying around the city and, before long, it becomes clear: Kenny is next. From the bustling streets of Seattle to the farmlands of Toledo and back, Tim, Kenny, and Fabiana race to solve the problem of the sickness that has infected the Blood Born immortals before it is too late. Daring new plots and dangerous new alliances are formed. While surprising faces come into light (some familiar and some appearing for the first time), everything reaches a crashing conclusion amidst emerging evidence of ominous government control and corruption.

Against a backdrop of fractured friendships and new romances, secrets and murder, victory may go to the men and women born to the blood. For when vampires dream, the world bleeds.
