Hooligans Charles Alverson

A timeless, hilarious coming of age novel from Charles Alverson.

With his mother away in Europe and his brother fighting in Korea, Christopher McLaren passes his summer days at his uncle's beer distributor, dragging boxes off trucks in the stifling heat. Nights spent alone with the family dog, Roof, prove less than scintillating.

Christopher's boring summer takes a radical turn, however, when he catches some local misfits stealing beer from his delivery truck. A confrontation on the other side of town leaves the entire group, including Christopher, in jail—where one question sits perched on everyone's lips. Will the clean-cut Christopher throw them to the wolves, or help them out of the jam?

And if Christopher sides with them, will falling in with a crowd of hooligans jeopardize his sterling future?
