Guide Her Home: A Year of Hope After a Child's Tragedy Jolene Lavine

As April of 2010 came to a close, Jolene Lavine wondered why her family's typically packed schedule was suddenly empty. Her question was answered on April 29, when tragedy struck. While preparing for a weekly horseback riding lesson, Jolene's ten-year-old daughter, Jessica, was kicked in the head by a horse. That day Jolene and her family began traveling a road they'd never imagined possible. Guide Her Home: A Year of Hope After a Child's Tragedy follows the Lavine family through the first year of Jessica's injury. From the accident itself to all that followed, readers share the intimate experience of a family's fight for a child's life and a mother's search for the light that will help guide her daughter home again.
