The Green Berets. Robin Moore

This new revised edition of the Green Berets memorializes "The Wall". New material includes a hitherto unpublished Special Forces story about the rear echelon SF men who spent a few days in the field with A Teams (and sometimes KIA) for an extra $55 a month. Several SF Men drew combat pay accompanying Robin Moore on his rounds of A Teams while researching this book.

From his Special Forces experiences in Vietnam the author writes in this new edition what he believes are lessons to be learned from the wall.

A photograph of General Henry Hugh Shelton's A Team when he was a captain in Vietnam in 1967 is also introduced.

When the picture was published in Moore's American Legion Magazine piece in January 99 the families of two unidentified team members recognized their relatives. Roberta Miller White, daughter of SFC Robert Miller (KIA) wrote the touching letter to Robin Moore which is printed in this new book.
