If you've ever wondered whether transformation is truly possible in a world seemingly filled with limitations, The Coach's Journey introduces you in a unique way to the stories of people who have dealt courageously with life's struggles from a wide variety of perspectives. Not only did they transform their lives, they've taken others wrestling with unfulfilled potential further down their own paths toward richer, more rewarding lives--for themselves, their families and their communities. This book provides an opportunity to be present to their wisdom, and to decide for yourself that positive transformation is not just possible, it's the difference between mere survival and the life you were meant to live.
