Drawing on a broad array of sources, Racial and Ethnic Relation, 8/e, examines the “what”, “why”, and “how” of racial and ethnic oppression and conflict. This book provides readers with access to important research and literature on racial and ethnic groups in the Unites States and, to a lesser extent, in certain other countries around the globe.

Major racial and ethnic groups are examined with regard to their incorporation, economic circumstances, political development, and experience with exploitation. This textbook is designed for the numerous scholars, journalists, politicians—and people—concerned with the racial and ethnic issues of discrimination, oppression, and conflict that exist in the U.S.
