Latasha and the Little Red Tornado tells the story of Latasha Gandy, a precocious and inventive third-grader who lives in Pittsburgh with her hardworking mother and a naughty puppy named Ella Fitzgerald. At eight years old, Latasha cannot wait to grow up. Ella, on the other hand, absolutely refuses to! When Ella's antics push the Gandy's landlady, Mrs. Okocho, to her wits' end, Latasha realizes that she must turn her mischievous mutt into a model dog. At turns hilarious and heartbreaking, this tale of friendship and maturity follows Latasha as she struggles with Ella, school, and her mother's absence from home.

Praise for *Latasha and the Little Red Tornado

"The premise is appealing...including a satisfying ending that's not too neat."

- Kirkus Reviews

"[Scotto's] sense of childhood emotions is pitch perfect...Middle readers will appreciate seeing themselves in the quick-paced story; parents will like the questions the book raises about responsibility and friendship. A winning addition to children's literature."

- ForeWord Reviews

Clifford Roselli:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Latasha and the Little Red Tornado can make you experience more interested to read.
