This book tells the amazing, true stories of children with cancer. Six met Jesus here on earth. One talked to God her Father in a mysterious language. Seven children described their encounters with angels. One boy sent red dragonflies from heaven as he had promised. Another thirty-four stories reveal the most inspirational moments in the lives of these remarkable young people: the haunting and the surreal, the dream-like and the divinely guided, and the instances when separate lives intersect, never to be the same again.
