Love In The Wind Madeline Baker

Devastated by the death of her fiancé at the hands of Indians, Katy Marie Alvarez decides to join a convent in order to avoid more tragedy. When her coach is attacked by the Cheyenne and she is the only survivor, she's given as a gift to their greatest warrior, Iron Wind—but she feels more like a slave. Emotions are running high and Katy is surprised when her passionate hatred toward Iron Wind melts into desire. Will the bond between them formed by their love be enough to keep them together through the treacherous times ahead?
