A Werewolf in Oregon

Frank has a pretty typical life in Oregon, he runs the local hardware shop and seems to get along with everyone in town. He was even able to find several other shifters who like himself enjoy shifting and running through the woods at night. Life doesn't seem like it could get any better, until one full moon when out on a run he was hypnotized by the most intoxicating scent. He suddenly feels the urge to track this exquisite smell to its source and he finds the most beautiful and curvy woman that it belongs to. He eventually loses her as she walks through the city and he yearns to see her once more, unfortunately weeks go by and no sign of his mystery lady. Unexpectedly, one day she walks into his shop and he recognizes her instantly by her scent, now is his chance to make the most of their meeting. Will it be every thing he had ever hoped for, Will anything stand in the way of his happiness?
