A Gay Romance That Will Leave You Begging For More

Tony Wicker is a proud gay man, but he wasn't always this way. As a teen he was in the closet until his father caught him fooling around with an older male neighbour and kicked him out of the house. Tony was forced to confront his homosexuality and although he hates his father to this day, he appreciates that he empowered him to become an openly gay and flamboyant man.

Tony is a genius, he graduated from Harvard Law School and immediately landed a job at a firm called May, Leora and Lobban in New York City. his boss, Marco Leora, is the sexiest man Tony has ever seen. Marco is confident, rich, funny and in the best shape of his life. He works like a madman and he's one of the best lawyers in New York. Tony never dreamed in a million years that Marco was gay, but deep down he always wished that he was.

Marco has a wife and two kids, but one night at the office while working late on big murder case with Tony, he succumbs to his gay urges. Tony begins tempting Marco and telling him that he shouldn't be ashamed of his homosexuality. After a while, Marco gives in and gives Tony a kiss he will never forget.

Be a fly on the wall for Marco and Tony's hot, gay, late night office encounter! Nothing will be left to the imagination!

This is part 1 in the "Gay Romance" Series and you don't want to miss this steamy hot gay romance short story!
