Kate never anticipated that her holiday on Bruny Island would be dramatically changed when she found two bodies down on Cloudy Bay beach. At first she wanted to pretend she hadn't seen them, but curiosity overcame her reluctance and so she dialled 000. What followed after that was a nightmare she never could have believed as she was drawn deeper and deeper into the mystery of why two people would have been murdered in such a remote area of Tasmania. The body count mounted before the puzzle was finally solved and in that time Kate experienced life changing issues that would mean things would never be the same.
