The purpose of this book is to provide the reader with a partial index to the enormous amount of information that is stored at the Montebello Filtration Plant in Baltimore Md. This information comes in a variety of forms: glass plate negatives, lantern slides, personal journals and letters, hundreds of files, thousands of photographs, a couple hundred books, numerous water contracts and specification books. Also various maps, drawings and blueprints. Although not inclusive of everything stored at Montebello, it is fairly representative of the collection.
