What do you do when you've lost everything you've ever loved? After the murder of his wife and daughter, Mitchell Davis leaves New York City to start a new life in Atlanta. Trying to forget the pain and the loss, he buries himself in his job, and it almost works until... Mitchell Davis is recruited by a major university to serve as a fundraiser, a person who travels the country asking wealthy alumni for six figure gifts to the school. It's the perfect job for Mitchell, and, as he soon finds out, the perfect cover for the newest member of a secret government organization... an organization that exists to kill. Unwittingly recruited, blackmailed to stay in, Mitchell Davis finds himself working for the government and working to avenge the deaths of his wife and daughter. It all seems to make sense to him until it all starts to unravel. With no one to trust and struggling to stay alive, Mitchell Davis finds himself fighting to discover the truth about the government, the people he was sent to kill and the people he has learned to trust with his life, and it gets harder to tell which is which.
