Sally's moved from the countryside to Sydney in order to gain independence from her fussing family, and she's found employment at the Black Corporation as a secretary. But, strangely enough, she ends up teaching her boss, Logan Black, how to waltz! Just the two of them, alone in the conference room... She knows she shouldn't, that she's not what he's looking for, but the attraction is there. And in his arms, the music enveloping her, she loses herself in his rare smile.
