Second Wind (Women of Whitfield Book 2) Darlene Deluca

When a devastating tornado rips through the small town of Whitfield, Dana Gerard's home is reduced to rubble and her well-ordered life to chaos. In the wake of the disaster, she finds herself in financial straits and confronted by challenges that test her limits.

With support from longtime friends, Dana tries to rebuild her home, but that's not her only worry, and may be the least of her concerns. Change greets her from all directions – at work and within her own family. At a crossroads, Dana is forced to see her life with a new vision and to trust the one person she's determined to push away.
