Brand new softcover book! ; When Denise was ten she went into an unexpected diabetic coma for three days. With that she had a massive stroke with blood effusing into two-thirds of the left side of her brain. She was expected to die and if she lived, the expectations were that she would be at best like a vegetable. During those three days, her spirit was with the Savior on the other side of the veil and He showed her and taught her a great deal. She was shown His birth, His crucifixion, His resurrection, His ministration to the Americas, and much, much more. 201 pages
