The Least Likely to Succeed Jack Clifford

Have you watched The Food Network? If so, you'll love this book which details how one of the most successful TV channels ever came to fruition thanks to the creativity, perseverance and genius of Jack Clifford.

Follow Clifford from humble beginnings in Michigan on a nation-wide odyssey. Cook with Emeril, go out to dinner with Robin Leach, walk backstage at Dancing with The Stars...you'll love the behind the scenes stories!

From Kalamazoo to Coronado, from the bottom of his class to the top of the American business world, Jack Clifford has seen it all and done most of it. Long before he founded The Food Network, fortunate timing and untold hours of hard work made Clifford a pioneer in the early days of television, cable TV and cellular phones.

This hilarious book has wonderful, behind the scenes stories of famous friends like Walter Cronkite, Ted Turner and your Food Network favorites as Jack Clifford's exploits are chronicled from Phoenix to Atlanta, from California to New England, from the bottom to the very top!
