Say It Again, Bill Cosby: We Are Victor! A Message To The Revs. Jackson, Dyson And Sharpton John Maxwell

What if black ministers like: Rev. Jesse Jackson, Michael Eric Dyson and Al Sharpton spoke of opportunities and refrained from preaching discontent, division, and dereliction? What if these so-called Christian ministers spoke words of wisdom and inspiration? What if, by some fate, these spokes persons of the black community read Bill Cosby's book, "Come On People: On the Path from Victims to Victors", and embraced the vision of Cosby and inspired our community toward greatness? Or, what if they remain hidden, as they did during the 2008 presidential election and kept their divisive rhetoric out of the public limelight? The result: an African American could become president and we could all embrace optimism and great possibilities. The reality is that a black man has already been elected President and greatness has always been within our reach. Read this book and discover the tough love behind Bill Cosby's words of wisdom.
