"Hang all the gangs that have been playing this dirty game! If I could see them wiped out, I'd almost be willing to die, too!" declared young Roan Kerany.

The Texican troubleshooter invited merciless death by riding with the sinister Comancheros whose pack loads of gunpowder bought stolen cattle from war-crazed savages.

Roan Kearny and Flint Bayliss head from Texas to New Mexico and join up with the outlaw Comancheros to foil a plot where guns and powder are traded to warrior Indian bands.

A gripping novel of frontier marauders and border retribution.
