The Holy Man's Journey picks up the story of the beloved wise man featured in The Holy Man book. Joe has recognized Anna as his successor. She and her troublesome husband, Errol, and their two children, are staying at the hermitage. Joe decides he must take Anna on a trip to visit his former teacher, Chen, at his Universe-city, but his health is failing and Anna is concerned that the trip will be too much for him. As it turns out, Joe knows exactly what he's doing. He uses the journey as a learning experience for Anna and as a spiritual cure for his corrupted mentor. It is a journey which brings enlightenment to Ann and to Chen -- in different ways. Intimate and revealing, this is a tale of friendship and love that shows the human side of the holy man while never ceasing to instruct and enlighten the reader.
