Donald Meester lives with, cares for, and enables his morbidly obese mother. Donald loves his mom but is convinced he'll never have a future as long as she's alive. In a weak moment, the naive bachelor becomes trapped in a murder-for-hire agreement with a mysterious redhead. It doesn't take long for him to regret the deal. In a development that could earlier have been good news, a graduate student and her young son come into his life. Now he has three people to worry about. Working against an unknown deadline, Donald must summon courage he's never had to save the people he loves from his own deadly decision. The colorful characters populating Donald's difficult life will keep you amused and intrigued. The action builds to a one-of-a-kind conclusion.
